

M. Arch. students

Public presentations

Design Democracy

Fellowship

Recognizing exemplary projects . . . good design, every day, for everyone

Wednesday, October 3, 2007

6–8 p.m.

Kodet Conference Room (Room 225)

Rapson Hall

FINALISTS

Josh Ehr

Malea Jochim

Amanda Olson

Derek Petersen

Nate Steuerwald

Shengyin Xu

JURORS

Tom Fisher

Jan Abrams

Scott Berry

Rich Varda

The Design Democracy Fellowship, established through gifts to the College of Design from Target Corporation and from individual architecture alumni, firms, and allied professionals, supports professional-degree architecture students with two awards of $5,000 annually. The Fellowship promotes the values of design democracy—good design, every day, for everyone—by recognizing exemplary projects.

Contributors include Ericksen Roed and Associates, Mulvanny G2 Architecture, Michaud Cooley Erickson and Assoc., MBH Architects Inc., RSP Architects, Pickard Chilton Architects Inc., Ryan Companies US, Target Corporation, Scott Berry, Dennis Mulvey, Rich Varda

