

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Plug in for parents and children!

As an aspiring parent educator, you already know how important it is to promote strong, thriving families. But did you know you can study this exciting field online? >>>

New online parent education courses at the University of Minnesota

Learn at home from leaders in the field of parent and family education. These online courses will prepare you to educate parents and families in a broad array of settings as well as enrich your work in related disciplines such as health, social work, and child psychology.

CI 5932 Introduction to Parent Education

CI 5942 Everyday Experiences of Families

CI 5943 Parent Learning and Development: Implications for Parent Education

CI 5944 Parent Education Curriculum

CI 5945 Teaching and Learning in Parent Education

CI 5946 Assessment and Evaluation in Parent Education

CI 5949 Parent Education Practicum

Discover more at

education.umn.edu/CI/ParentEd.html

All courses apply to Minnesota's parent and family education license, a state requirement for Early Childhood Family Education (ECFE) employment. These graduate courses also prepare parent educators to work in other Minnesota contexts and in other states and countries.

IN PROCESS: Certificate in parent education. Online courses will count toward certificate.

The College of Education
& Human Development

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.