

Chicago Daily Observer

- Home
- Archive
- About
- Subscribe
  - By Email
  - By RSS
- Submit a Story
- Talk

Home » Syndicated

Down ticket GOP statewides lean conservative in Rockford

IR 3 November 2009 No Comment

This article was syndicated via RSS from [Illinois Review. The views represented do not necessarily represent those of the Chicago Daily Observer.]

Winnebago County is one of the top twenty voting counties that votes in primaries, and last night in Rockford Illinois, down ticket statewide candidates answered questions raised by Concerned Christians for America. The candidate forum moderator Larry Jacobs asked all candidates who appeared -- LG candidates Jason Plummer and Don Tracy, as well as State Comptroller candidate Jim Dodge -- the following questions:

- Do you support or oppose civil unions and/or same sex marriage? All three said 'Oppose.'
- Do you support or oppose a Constitutional Amendment protecting the one-man/one-woman definition of marriage? All three said "Support."
- Do you support or oppose making Illinois a Right to Work state? All three said "Support."
- Do you support or oppose ending state funding of embryonic stem cell research? All three said "Support ending."
- Do you support of oppose lifting the death penalty moratorium in Illinois? Plummer supported lifting the ban and proceeding to execute, Tracy opposed lifting the ban, Dodge supported lifting the ban.
- Do you support or oppose the concealed carry law in Illinois? All three supported, Tracy wanted requirements attached.
- Do you support of oppose the expansion of gambling? All three opposed.

◆ Email this ◆ Digg This! ◆ Share on Facebook ◆ Stumble It! ◆ Add to Mixx! ◆ Discuss on Newsvine ◆ outside.in: geotag this story

◆ Add to del.icio.us ◆ Save to del.icio.us ◆ View CC license ◆ Technorati Links

Leave your response!