Electronic Resources

AudioCaseFiles (Access limited to U of MN Law students, staff & faculty, registration required)
AudioCaseFiles provides downloadable MP3 files of court opinions as well as streaming trial video, offering University of Minnesota law students and faculty a useful way to access case law. Many of the over 1,000 digitally recorded opinions in this collection are cited and discussed in law school casebooks. Search or browse by course to find audio and text versions of the court opinions. The Law Library's subscription also includes access to the Video Training Library (VTL) on the AudioCaseFiles web site. The VTL provides real trial video highlights with commentary and analysis keyed to a breakdown of trial advocacy and litigation training topics. University of Minnesota Law students, faculty and staff must register at www.audiocasefiles.com/register/, using their University of Minnesota email address to access the case recordings collection and video training library.

CCH IntelliConnect \(Business & Finance and Business Compliance Libraries\) (Access within the Law Library and Mondale Hall; Remote access available to U of MN Law students, staff & faculty)
The Law Library's CCH IntelliConnect subscription includes two major libraries, the Business & Finance

Library and the Business Compliance Library. A onetime user registration is required to access IntelliConnect. The Business & Finance Library includes over 80 different publications covering a broad array of business and finance law topics. Many popular CCH looseleaf publications are included. The Business Compliance Library includes over 50 publications in the broad areas of health law, and labor and employment law. It also contains online versions of many popular CCH print titles. CCH IntelliConnect provides access to both annotated primary source materials such as laws, regulations, court and agency decisions, and secondary materials that feature expert explanation and analysis of the law, timely coverage of current developments, and practice materials such as forms.
